HALLOWEEN HOWL

Important Information Below for Athletes – Coaches – Spectators

Development Tournament Kick Light Rules

All contact must be LIGHT CONTROLLED TOUCH at only 30% contact level (strictly adhered to)

Referees will give warnings and penalties for excessive contact

Athletes who use excessive contact after a warning will be disqualified

All athletes must enter the ring with the correct equipment and outfitting

Athletes require their own headgear and shin/instep or footpads with shin pads.

We will not give you time to replace incorrect equipment or outfitting. If you are unsure about your equipment have it checked well before the bout. Ensure that it fits properly!

Shin pads must reach 3 inches below the knee

Headgear must be put on before the athlete enters the ring

Gloves must be provided in the ON DECK station. It must be put on before going onto the mat.

Bout Order

The bout order for each bracket can be found using the QR Codes that will be posted throughout the venue. Athletes must be in the ON DECK area one bout before you match. You must be on deck prior to your bout. If the athlete is not present when called, the athlete's bout is cancelled.

Sportsmanship Requirements

WAKO Canada has a ZERO TOLERANCE policy for any inappropriate verbal or abusive behavior of any sort towards any official, athlete or coach. First offense will result in the automatic removal of the individual and potential disqualification of the athlete.

Spectators

Spectator cost is $40/Day. Cash only - payable at the door. WAKO relies on spectator fees to cover the large costs associated with events and the running of our association. WAKO tournaments are organized and run by volunteers who work together to help athletes have opportunity for competitive experience.

All spectators, athletes and coaches are expected to follow directions and respect the work done by these volunteers. All individuals are expected to behave in a respectful manner throughout the tournament. Those that do not will be removed from the event.
